

Literacy in Kindergarten

The MHPS Literacy program provides rich literacy experiences to support all students in Kindergarten to become successful Readers and Writers.

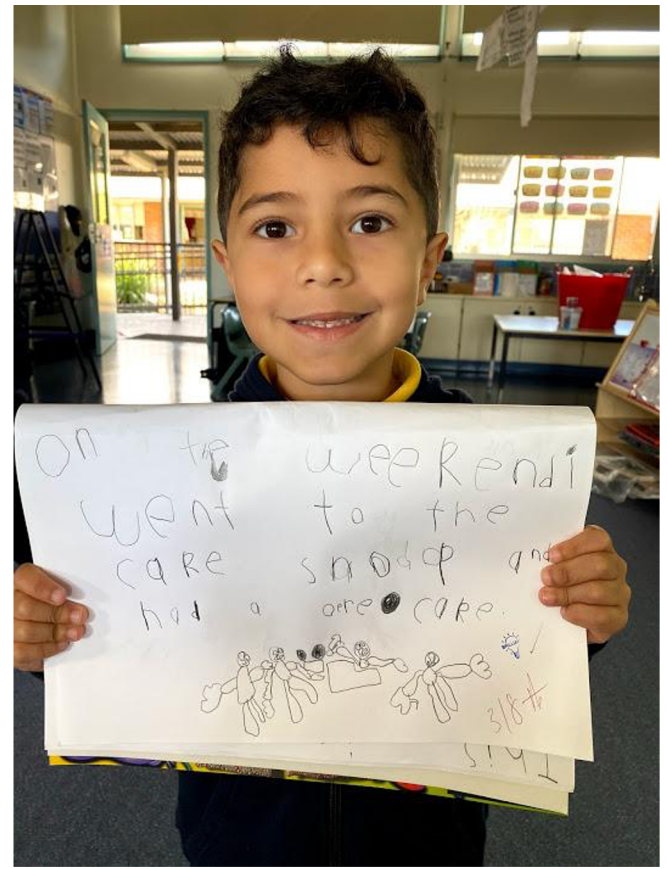

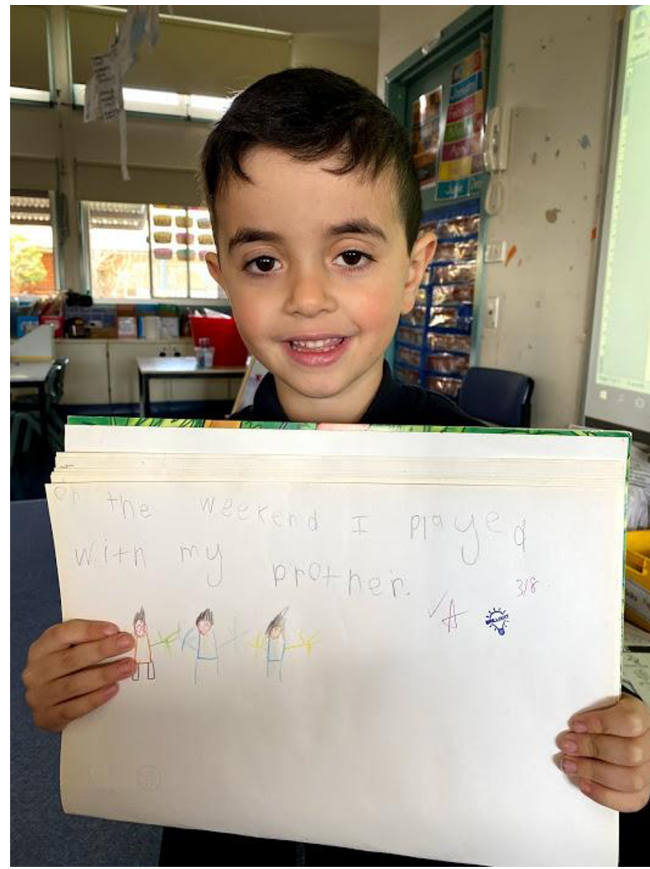

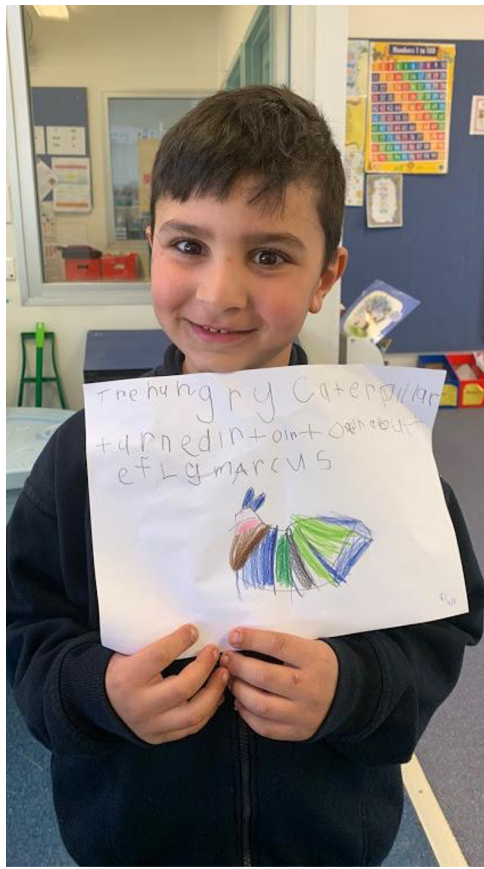

Reading and writing is taught in the classroom to small groups of three students as part of the daily literacy lesson

The remainder of the class works independently on carefully selected literacy tasks.

Students enjoy writing and sharing their work.