Parents as Volunteers Code of Conduct

All parents who enter onto any government school premises do so in the knowledge that the school community and the Department of Education expect them to conduct themselves in an appropriate manner. Volunteers are bound by the same Code of Conduct as all employees of the Department of education. A copy of this code can be found at the following link:

https://www.det.nsw.edu.au/policies/staff/ethical_behav/conduct/Code_guide.pdf

Parents as Volunteers are expected to follow the Code of Conduct Required of Parents/Visitors and Other persons on School Grounds as well as:

- to be outstanding role models for all students
- to work under the professional direction of staff, following school policies
- to speak in a kind and friendly way to all students and staff
- to maintain confidentiality
- to report any issues of concern to teachers (and not directly intervene)
- to keep a safe and professional distance from all students
- to comply with all legal requirements of Working with Children.

As Parents and Community members we expect

- our children to be respected
- our children to be safe and to feel secure
- our children to be protected from inappropriate behaviours and language
